

SECRETS & SURPRISES!

SPECIAL DOUBLE ISSUE

People

OPRAH'S
RED CARPET
DIET

JULIA'S BODY
AFTER BABY!

58
PAGES OF OSCAR DRESSES
GOSSIP &
PARTIES

Split!

The Bachelorette
What Went Wrong?

BTK SUSPECT
The Killer
Next Door?

DISPLAY UNTIL MARCH 21, 2005

$3.99US $5.99CAN

11>

What was going through Cate Blanchett's mind when her name was announced? "Not a lot. Just don't trip," said the actress, who kept her Oscar out till 2 a.m. at the Governors Ball and then the Vanity Fair bash.

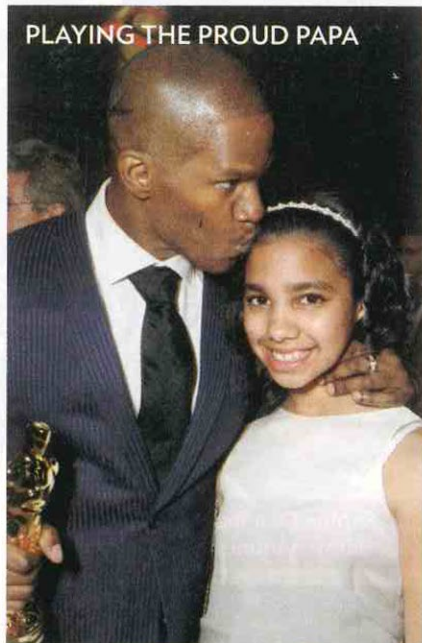

After three months of mommyhood, "it is fun to dress up for a while," said Julia Roberts (with honoree Sidney Lumet).

JAMIE FOXX

WHAT'D HE SAY?

Best Actor Foxx's first stop was the Governors Ball with daughter Corinne, 11. Someday, says Foxx, "she will be talking to her friends and say, 'Me and my dad one night had a great time.'" But for now? "She said, 'Dad, after this can we go to the big awards?' Which is the Nickelodeon Kids' Choice Awards."

PLAYING THE PROUD PAPA

HITTING VINE STREET'S VIP LOUNGE

SINGING "GEORGIA"

CELEBRATING WITH HIS COSTAR

Joining friends at his afterparty in the VIP room at the Vine Street Lounge, Foxx played the Baldwin piano that was used in Ray, singing "Georgia on My Mind" and joking, "Forgive me because I am not responsible for anything tonight." After 3 a.m. he celebrated with costar Kerry Washington at a private party.